Clinical thought leaders will present a new case study on addressing social determinants and outcomes for vulnerable patient populations

IRVING, TX – March 21, 2022 – Lightbeam Health Solutions, the leader in end-to-end population health management solutions and services, will be speaking at the RISE Summit on Social Determinants of Health (SDoH) alongside Primary Partners and Alliance for Community Health. The presentation, “Cross-Sector and Across the Table Partnerships: Insights into Addressing SDoH at the Provider Level,” will take place on Tuesday, March 22 at 1:45 PM CT at The Omni Hotel in Nashville, TN.

Social determinants are an important marker for health disparity and equity. By understanding and including SDoH within a population health strategy, providers, payers, and healthcare executives can engage in true patient-centered care. During the presentation, speakers will highlight how Primary Partners and Community Health Alliance formed their partnership to develop vibrant, engaged communities, and how Lightbeam’s platform assisted with analytics, workflows, and provider engagement.

“I am excited to present alongside Alliance for Community Health and Primary Partners at RISE,” said Jessica Scruton, BSN, RN, CCM-R, Vice President Clinical Transformation, Lightbeam Health Solutions. “We know that the conditions in which people are born, live, learn, work, and play affects their quality of life and access to care. By reducing health disparities, we can help people live better and fuller lives. I am thrilled to be able to share the results of our partnership and how we are scaling care and increasing health equity.”

“I am delighted to partner with a company like Lightbeam that cares about our patients and their daily struggles to find and access care,” said Jane Simon, Chief Advancement and Programs Officer at Alliance for Community Health. “I know when I work with the team at Lightbeam that they are committed to using their knowledge to help us help and others.
