

Fraudulent Recruiting Activities Disclaimer

Lightbeam Health Solutions has recently been made aware of unauthorized individuals falsely presenting themselves as employees of Lightbeam offering employment opportunities as a part of a scam, phishing attempt, or other fraudulent activity.

Please note:

- All correspondence from Lightbeam will come from an email address using the Lightbeam domain of “@lightbeamhealth.com.”
- Lightbeam will talk to candidates in person, over the phone, or through the Microsoft Teams video platform, never via instant messenger or text.
- Candidates are encouraged to apply for open positions posted on the Lightbeam website or ZipRecruiter.

Lightbeam will never request payments from candidates at any point in the hiring process. Our hiring process also does not include unsolicited requests for personal information such as social security numbers, bank details, or other sensitive information, outside of our secure HR platforms.

Please exercise caution. If you experience any suspicious interaction with someone claiming to represent Lightbeam, we urge you to suspend or cease communication immediately. Do not disclose any personal or financial information and do not engage in any monetary transaction. If you receive any unauthorized, suspicious or fraudulent job offer, please contact us immediately using the contact options provided at <https://lightbeamhealth.com/>.

If you believe you have been the victim of a scam, fraud, or identity theft, you may report the matter to local law enforcement, the state Attorney General, the FBI, and/or the FTC. Lightbeam is not responsible for any claims, losses, damages, or expenses resulting from scammers.

Stay safe!

Lightbeam Health Solutions Team